Class held at Old Down Hall, Kempshott Lane, Basingstoke,

- All levels are welcome
 - All students practice together and at their own pace.
 - The main focus of the course will be to relax and release tension.
 - We will be practising pranayama (breath control) to release tension in the body & mind.
 - We will be practising a series of standing postures (asanas) and floor postures to increase strength and flexibility, each week we will practice a flow sequence to learn that you can practice at home.
 - We will also be practising meditation and end each class with a relaxation
 - For beginners a gentle introduction and for the more advanced to go deeper into their practice.
